Commissioner Gunnoe asked Asst Fire Marshal Lewis to give his report on 2018-007-FDC. Asst Fire Marshal Lewis stated that he was assigned by Deputy Fire Marshal Casto after the October Fire Commission Meeting to investigate the allegations that the Martinsburg Fire Department had NOT completed their Hose testing as documented on their State Fire Marshal Self Evaluation Form or during their last State Fire Marshal Fire Department Evaluation. Asst. Fire Marshal Lewis subpoenaed all documents concerning annual required testing and reviewed those on Nov 16, 2018. Everything had been tested but there wasn't any documentation of the required hose testing. Asst Fire Marshal Lewis discussed this with Martinsburg Fire Chief Paul Bragg and the Chief Bragg said that it had gotten away from him. He then reviewed the State Fire Marshal's Office records of fire department evaluations and found that it was documented by Asst Fire Marshal Scott that the hose testing had been completed and that during his evaluation an Excel work sheet had been provided as proof that the hose testing had been completed. Asst Fire Marshal Lewis went back to the Martinsburg Fire Chief Bragg and Chief Bragg admitted to not completing hose testing for up to 10 previous years.

Ongoing Projects:

Video Contest – Middle and high school students are invited to participate in the first annual video contest through the West Virginia State Fire Marshal’s Office. This contest is designed to bring fire safety and awareness to older students. Thoughtful planning and research will give them a better understanding of the dangers fire can pose with the end goal of having their video used as a public service announcement to the citizens of West Virginia. The videos will be 1-3 minutes in length and prizes will be awarded to one middle school submission and one high school submission. The deadline for this contest was December 2nd 2018. No submissions were sent to the office, the contest will be postponed until next year.

Poster Contest – The third annual State Fire Marshal Fire Safety Poster Contest is underway. The agency received a total of 135 submissions from all over the state. Students in grades K-5th have designed fire safety messages that will be judged by DMAPS Cabinet Secretary Jeff Sandy, Executive Assistant to the First Lady, Vicki Shannon, and State Schools Superintendent Steve Payne. The poster submissions will be made into safety calendar that will be distributed in December. The winner of the contest and the 11 honorable mentions are visited by the Fire Marshal where they are recognized and given a plaque for their hard work.

History Project - 110th anniversary of the founding of the WV Fire Marshal's Office will be celebrated in 2019 and as a part of this celebration, research is being done to include photos and bios of Fire Marshals' past. An anniversary edition booklet of the WVSFMO will be made available along with other commemorative items.

52 Week Fire Prevention Guide - Fire departments and residents in West Virginia will have access to a fire safety planning guide that covers seasonal topics. The guide is created with a weekly and monthly topic that includes safety topics, historic fire information and important practices to keep in mind. The guide will be made available on the WV State Fire Marshal's Office Website.

- Municipal Home Rule – Still in Abeyance; Municipal Home Rule to convene again in January 16th due to cancellation of October meeting
- Fire Department Loss of Funding:
 - (The two deadlines involved are the quarter deadline and then 90 days later, the grace period deadline. Other than being decertified, not submitting their NFIRS incident reports by the prescribed due date is the only way to lose their funding. It has nothing to do with the 180-day issue. Once they miss the grace period deadline, the money is lost and reallocated to the departments that were complying. There is no getting it back after hat.) Share info rec. letters from Treasury; we'll be making an inquiry to see if there are earlier notification/communications that can be provided to help and assist departments to prevent the loss of their distributions.

- Basic Fire Marshals Academy summary of 6 weeks; very successful. Future plans are to spread the six-week course over broader period and possibly located where greatest need lies at the time.

Gov. Justice honors Fire Marshal investigators

Elderly Mason man was victim of scam; Fire Marshals stepped in to help

- CHARLESTON, W.Va. – Governor Jim Justice is recognizing a trio from the West Virginia State Fire Marshal’s Office after they went above and beyond to aid a home repair scam victim in Mason County.
- Assistant State Fire Marshals L.L. Price, T.S. Provaznik and S.E. Petry were honored during a Wednesday ceremony at the State Capitol. Deputy Chief of Staff Ann Urling presented their awards on behalf of Gov. Justice.
- The three responded to a September complaint concerning electrical work performed on a single-family dwelling. The owner, a senior citizen, had hired a person he believed to be a West Virginia-licensed electrician and paid him in advance.
- The marshals discovered that the man claiming to be an electrician had never obtained the appropriate state license. Citations were issued to the individual, who later admitted to operating without a valid electrician’s license.
- But the investigators also found that the electrical wiring this individual had installed posed an immediate hazard to anyone living in the home if activated. The homeowner lacked the resources to hire someone else to bring his home into compliance with the electrical code.
- Price, Provaznik and Petry decided to help. Price, a certified commercial and residential electrical inspector, reached out to former co-workers and formed a small team of licensed electricians to help with this project. Aided by local business that donated materials, they rewired the home at no cost to the resident.
During the rewiring it was also noted that the resident had no working smoke alarms in the home. Those, too, were installed.

- Entertain questions!

Commissioner George asked to receive notice anytime State Fire Marshals receive recognition at an event so that all Fire Commissioners may attend if available. Fire Marshal Tyree stated in this specific occasion the date had been moved several times and we will invite the fire commission whenever possible.

Commissioner George asked about the legislative bills the State Fire Marshal’s Office will be sponsoring. List these. Fire Marshal Tyree discussed the following bills 87-4 WV SOS Filing, IECC Energy Code (change) & ASHRAE 90-1, 2010; and WV State Fire Marshals Expanded Powers 29-3-12; that has been submitted to the Governor’s Office. Fire Marshal Tyree also discussed Senate Bill SB625 and the report that will need completed by July 1, 2019. Commissioner George asked if the Fire Marshals have adequate law enforcement powers to deal with situations like the Martinsburg Fire Department Evaluation, where fire marshal’s where given misleading information and asked Fire Marshal Tyree if he feels that he has power to take care of these situations? Fire Marshal Tyree stated that staff has already begun to update forms and application with more binding legal language and make improvements to our process so that in the future the fire marshals are in a better position to address issues such as we've discussed. Commissioner George stated that the Fire Commission and the Fire Marshal's Office has a duty to protect the public and should receive respect as they do their jobs as law enforcement agents. Fire Marshal Tyree concurred that he believes we are putting forth a good product to provide public safety.

Commissioner Gunnoe asked Fire Marshal Tyree if our fire marshals are receiving the same consideration as a WV Trooper or Sheriff with the same attention and respect when fulfilling their duties. Commissioner George also added how the fire commission can assist so that our fire marshals are not being jerked around? Fire Marshal Tyree stated that our State Cabinet Secretary has used the fire marshals in several law enforcement capacities and that he has supported our efforts to obtain expanded powers and we are hopeful our fire marshal expanded power bill will move forward and better enable our agency to fulfill our duties. On some occasions fire marshals will do all the case work for an investigation, but don't have the authority to bring the case to the prosecutor's office and have to turn everything over to another law enforcement agency. At times we can do this ourselves and other situations; like when embezzlement is found, we cannot move it forward to the prosecutor's office.

Commissioner Gunnoe asked if the Fire Commission needs to have a special meeting to assist and support any legislative bills needed to help these types of bills move forward in the process. Fire Marshal Tyree stated at this point; unless it is an emergency, it is too late to make any changes to the bills in his opinion.

Commissioner White made a motion to accept the operations report, seconded by Commissioner Stroop. With all the ayes and nays having been taken on a voice vote, the motion passed.

SPEAKERS:

1) James Porter- "Managing a Nonprofit Volunteer Fire Department Training Course". Discussed how he would like to see this course completed. Commissioner Gunnoe reassured him that the fire commission and the fire marshal will get with WVU Extension Fire Service Director Mark Lambert and Steve Connolly to inquire about the completion of this course for review and delivery. Mr. Porter asked about inclusion of Public Safety Training personnel and Commissioner Gunnoe said they are welcome to assist too. Mr. Porter asked if he could be added to the next Fire Commission agenda and was told he was welcome to speak at the next meeting.

2) Jack E. Jamison, Jr.- WV Division of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors. Mr. Jamison stated that the WV Division of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors has transitioned to the WV Chapter as part of the Western Section. The Western Section consists of 18 states from Nebraska to West Virginia and North Dakota to Arkansas. He has been placed on the Western Section Board as the representative from West Virginia. The Secretary of the Board has invited West Virginia to host the 2023 Annual Meeting of the Western Section. This would be a great opportunity for us to host representatives of the electrical industry from these states to West Virginia and to offer to our own licensees the quality education that this meeting always offers.

As the WV State Fire Marshal's Office is the licensing agency of electricians, electrical inspectors, and code officials in West Virginia, Mr. Jamison would like their input and assistance as we plan for this venture.
